

POLI 100C: Political Parties

Agenda: 17 January 2008

C. The Historical Context of *Federalist # 10

- 3. The Economic Grievances that led to the War for Independence
  - a. The Navigation Acts and Enumerated Articles
  - b. The Cost of the French-Indian War 1753-1763
  - c. British Payment of Defense Costs of Colonies Led to Attempts to Tax
- 4. The Political Grievances that led to the War for Independence
  - a. The Economic Burden of Taxation by Britain
  - b. Winners and Losers From the Navigation Acts
  - c. Various Acts of Parliament 1763 - 1774 that Negated Fundamental Rights of the Colonists
- 5. The Interaction Between the Economic and Political Grievances -- The Violation of Various Fundamental Rights of the Colonists gave the "Revolutionary Cadre" compelling Arguments they could use to move People already aggrieved by the economic issues to take part in a revolt.

D. Federalist # 10

- 1. Madison's Argument for the Constitution
- 2. Problems With Madison's Argument
- 3. Madison's view of Political Parties
- 4. Madison's Key Insights Into the Nature of Politics